Historic Properties Review

A. Check the National Register of Historic Places. Is there a Site present? Yes No

B. Does the Cultural Resources County Map indicate the presence of a previously recorded archeological site within the section? Yes No

If yes, contact the CRC or the CRS for additional site information. Contact may be by email, phone, or fax.

Is the previously recorded site within the Area of Potential Effect Yes No

Explain:

C. Are there any other buildings or structures of possible historical significance within the area to be treated? Yes No

If this review indicates that previously recorded or historic sites might be in the Area of Potential Effect (APE), contact your Area Cultural Resource Coordinator (ACRC). The APE will have to be surveyed by an ACRC and/or Cultural Resource Specialist (CRS) if alternatives cannot be developed that do not include undertakings.

Discussion with Owner/Operator

A. Is the owner and/or operator aware of any historic structural remains such as old farmsteads, mill or logging camps, Indian mounds, graves, or aware of any artifacts that now or in the past occurred within the Area of Potential Effect? Yes No

If yes, contact your ACRC. The site will be assessed by the ACRC before a decision is made about having the site surveyed by a CRS. The ACRC will complete a site form. The completed report is sent with attached documentation to the State Office CRC. The site form should be filed in the separate 420 file reserved for site specific cultural resource information, and not placed in the case file.

Field Inspection and Appraisal

A. Date area to be disturbed (APE) was walked and visually searched for physical evidence of historic and/or prehistoric artifacts.

Date: _____ Area was surveyed by: _____

B. Was anything found? Yes No

Explain:

If yes, contact your ACRC. The site will be assessed by the ACRC before a decision is made about having the site surveyed by a CRS. The ACRC will complete a site form. The completed report is sent with attached documentation to the State Office CRC. The site form should be filed in the separate 420 file reserved for site specific cultural resource information, and not placed in the case file. If no site forms are required, and there is no sites within the planning unit, file this form in the Case File
