

RUNOFF MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Since this practice is a combination of other practices, refer to the documentation requirements for the component practice being installed. Those record requirements will apply to this practice, Runoff Management System, 570. When rooftop storage is a component, documentation shall include a structural analysis of the supporting structure.