

WALLACE COUNTY - DESIGNATED CRITICAL HABITATS

TOPEKA SHINER - Notropis topeka (Gilbert, 1884)

Status: Threatened in Kansas
Endangered Nationally

Willow Creek main stem in Wallace County from where it enters the Smoky Hill River (Sec. 17-T13S-R41W) upstream through (Sec. 3-T13S-R41W).

WESTERN GREEN TOAD - Bufo debilis insidiosus (Girard, 1854)

Status: Threatened in Kansas

All native prairie lands and waters within an area encircled by a line beginning on the Logan-Wichita County line at SE corner (Sec. 36-T15S-R37W), then extending due north to the Smoky Hill River at (Sec. 24-T13S-R37W), then continuing westerly along the Smoky Hill River to the Kansas Highway K-27 crossing at (Sec. 27-T13S-R40W), Wallace County, then southerly along Kansas Highway K-27 to the Wallace-Greeley County line at SW corner (Sec. 35-T15S-R40W), then due east along the county lines to the point of origin at SE corner (Sec. 36-T15S-R37W). This area contains lands and waters in Logan and Wallace counties.