

REFERENCE LIST

Technical Notes

Technical Notes are used to provide current research, instructions, conservation field trials, etc. on specific subjects. They will be filed in a three-ring binder, alphabetically by title under a subject heading.

Agroforestry

- Agroforestry for Farms and Ranches, July 1, 1996
<http://www.nrcs.usda.gov/TECHNICAL/ECS/forest/technote.html>

Conservation Planning

- Conservation Planning Checklist Technical Note, April 2008
- NC Instructions for Completing the Inventory of Resource Concerns, May 2007
- NC-CPA-52 Instructions, May 2007
- NC Minimum Requirements for Erosion & Sediment Control Planning at Animal Feeding Operations and other construction sites not subject to Sedimentation Pollution Control Act of 1973, June 2007
- NC Conservation Planning Guidelines for Outdoor Swine Operations Technical Note, August 2007
- NC Conservation Planning Guidelines for Outdoor Swine Operations Technical Note Summary, August 2007

Forestry

- Economic Evaluations of the Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program for Various Forestry Options, April 1999
- Guidelines for Successful Design of Forest Trails and Access Roads, May 2002
- Planting, Culture, and Maintenance Requirements for hardwoods, March 2003
- Planting, Culture, and Maintenance Requirements for Longleaf Pine, March 2003
- Southern Pine Beetle Hazard Rating System for Piedmont, 1980
- Use of Soil/Site Data with a Geographic information System – A Better Way to Predict Site Productivity, May 1999
- Water Quality Benefits from Management of Riparian Forest Buffers, April 1999

Pasture and Hayland

- Conservation Guide for Grazing Land Technical Note, December 2007

Water Quality

- Managing Inactive Lagoons, February 2007