

WETS Climate Data Instructions on eFOTG

Determine what township your project is in and note the color code of that township.

The color of the township will determine what weather station was used to analyze the climatic data. Note that the weather station used may not be in the same county as the project. Go to eFOTG for the WETS spreadsheets that are named by weather station city to view the data.