TECHNICAL GUIDE NOTICE NO. 550

JUNE 27, 2005

Re: Official Colorado Major Land Resource Areas (MLRA) Map and Descriptions, and Colorado Common Resource Areas (CRA) Map.

This Technical Guide Notice (TGN) transmits the most current, and official, maps for MLRAs and CRAs in Colorado. It also transmits MLRA descriptions. These documents are posted in Section I, General of the Colorado electronic Field Office Technical Guide (eFOTG).

All previous versions of the MLRA and CRA maps should be discarded, or archived for historical purposes. The new MLRA and CRA symbols should be used in all NRCS inventory and planning documents, and in the National Soils Information System (NASIS) and the Ecological Site Information System (ESIS) databases.

Go to the Colorado eFOTG for copies of documents transmitted with this notice, or click the document name below for a direct link.
