

Natural Resources Conservation Service
 P.O. Box 1458
 Bismarck, ND 58502-1458

July 13, 2012

TECHNICAL GUIDE NOTICE ND-134

This notice transmits revisions to the Field Office Technical Guide (FOTG) as follows:

An After the Flood series has been added to Section I – Reference Subjects – Riparian Areas and Stream Corridors and Section IV – Conservation Practices – Riparian Herbaceous Cover and Riparian Forest Buffers. The documents are as follows:

- After the Flood – Managing Tree Regeneration
- After the Flood – Managing Weeds
- After the Flood – Seeding Grasses
- After the Flood - References

Section IV:

- The following conservation practices documents have been revised or are new:

Conservation Practice	Standard	Statement of Work (SOW)	O&M Plan	Specification
Agricultural Secondary Containment Facility - 710
Drainage Water Management – 554
Grassed Waterway - 412
Pond Sealing or Lining – Flexible Membrane 521A
Pond Sealing or Lining – Soil Dispersant – 521 B
Pond Sealing or Lining – Bentonite Sealant – 521C
Pond Sealing or Lining – Compacted Clay Treatment – 521D
Structure for Water Control - 587
* Waste Transfer - 634

 Conservation practice Manure Transfer - 634 has been revised and renamed to Waste Transfer - 634.

Questions concerning the engineering conservation practices should be directed to Dennis Reep, State Engineer, at (701)530-2091 or dennis.reep@nd.usda.gov

/s/

TODD A. SCHWAGLER
 State Resource Conservationist

Distribution: All FOTG Holders

