

United States Department of Agriculture
Natural Resources Conservation Service

Pasture Condition Score (PCS)
Site Adaptation of Desired Species Element
Attach Photos

General Information
Client: _____	Farm #: _____
Field Office: _____	Tract #: _____
County: _____	Field # and acreage: _____

	Pasture Unit Description
Site adaptation of desired species Presence of planted or desired forage species is:  1 2 3 4 5  (Read criteria and select appropriate number)

Indicator	..... 1	..... 2	..... Score ..... 3	..... 4	..... 5
Site adaptation of desired species	Properly planted and established (desired) species are no longer present.	Properly planted and established (desired) species are nearly gone. Volunteer unwanted species dominate.	One or more properly planted and established, or recruited desired species are missing. Unwanted species invading.	Properly planted and established, or recruited desired species still represented, but not in the desired proportions.	Properly planted and established, or recruited desired species are present in the desired proportions.