

Forms for requesting assistance from SHPO, State Archeologist or State Museum

There are no such forms to request assistance from any of the entities described above because they do not provide such assistance. Federal agencies are responsible for conducting all cultural resources reviews during project planning. The SHPO or state archeologist will meet with a federal representative to develop mitigation plans.