The National Conservation Desktop Initiative had produced checklists dated October 2012 to be used to document resource concerns. These checklists have been revised and new ones have been developed. The new checklists are dated July/August 2013. The new checklists have been added to Section III of the West Virginia FOTG. The earlier versions have been archived.

The new and updated checklists are effective immediately.

If you have any questions or concerns please contact Patrick Bowen, State Resource Conservationist, at (304) 284-7579.
