

CULTURAL RESOURCE LINKS

Note: You are temporarily exiting the NRCS Electronic Field Office Technical Guide.

These links are supplied for reference purposes only. They provide easy access to state and national web sites that have a variety of information about historic and cultural resources.

Wyoming State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) - A link to the State of Wyoming Historic Preservation Office Homepage. The SHPO maintains a database for cultural resources throughout the state as well as policy guidance on cultural resource investigations and documentation procedures. <http://wyoshpo.state.wy.us/>

Wyoming State Historical Society - Access the State of Wyoming Historical Society Homepage. <http://wyshs.org/>

National Register of Historic Places - Access the US Department of Interior, National Park Service National Register of Historic Places. Contains the Nation's official list of cultural resources worthy of preservation. <http://WWW.CR.NPS.GOV/NR/>

National Historic Landmarks - Access the US Department of Interior, National Park Service, National Historic Landmarks Homepage. National Historic Landmarks are nationally significant historic places designated by the Secretary of the Interior because they possess exceptional value or quality in illustrating or interpreting the heritage of the United States. <http://www.cr.nps.gov/nhl/>

National Natural Landmarks Program - Access the US Department of Interior, National Park Service, National Natural Landmarks Program Homepage. A National Natural Landmark (NNL) is a nationally significant natural area that has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior. <http://www1.nature.nps.gov/partner/nnlp.htm>

CULTURAL RESOURCE LINKS

Note: You are temporarily exiting the NRCS Electronic Field Office Technical Guide.

Certified Local Government Contacts for Historic Preservation - Access the homepage for the Heritage Preservation Services, National Park Service. Search for local CLG contacts by state. The CLG helps our nation's citizens and communities identify, evaluate, protect and preserve historic properties for future generations of Americans. Located in Washington, D.C. within the National Center for Cultural Resources, the Division provides a broad range of products and services, financial assistance and incentives, educational guidance, and technical information in support of this mission. Its diverse partners include State Historic Preservation Offices, local governments, tribes, federal agencies, colleges, and non-profit organizations. http://grants.cr.nps.gov/CLGs/CLG_Search.cfm

University of Wyoming, Department of Anthropology - Access the UW Department of Anthropology Homepage. The Department of Anthropology at the University of Wyoming is known throughout the state of Wyoming and the region for its leadership in research and public education about our unique archaeological heritage. <http://uwadmnweb.uwyo.edu/anthropology/>

National Archaeological Database - Access the US Department of Interior, National Park Service, National Archaeological Database. The National Archeological Database, Reports module, is an expanded bibliographic inventory of approximately 240,000 reports on archeological investigation and planning, mostly of limited circulation. <http://web.cast.uark.edu/other/nps/nadb/nadb.mul.html>

Cultural Resource Internet Information - Access a Natural Resource Conservation Service (NRCS) web site with cultural resource links to federal agencies, professional organizations and non-profits, publications, and cultural resources beyond the United States. <http://www.nrcs.usda.gov/technical/cultural.html>

The World Heritage List - Access the UNESCO World Heritage Centre list of properties. The 855 properties which the World Heritage Committee has inscribed on the World Heritage List (663 cultural, 166 natural and 26 mixed properties in 142 States Parties). <http://whc.unesco.org/en/list>