

FIRE HEARTH FEATURES

Fire features may display disparate characteristics. The extremely large (7 foot x 3 foot) rock filled hearth with associated charcoal stains (note the staining in the profile behind the hearth) displays one end of this continuum.

Wyoming FOTG
Section II, Cultural Resources
August 2002

At the other end of the spectrum, concentrated or dispersed charcoal staining is an indication of past human activity and can be difficult to discern.

